13-34

Position Title and Location

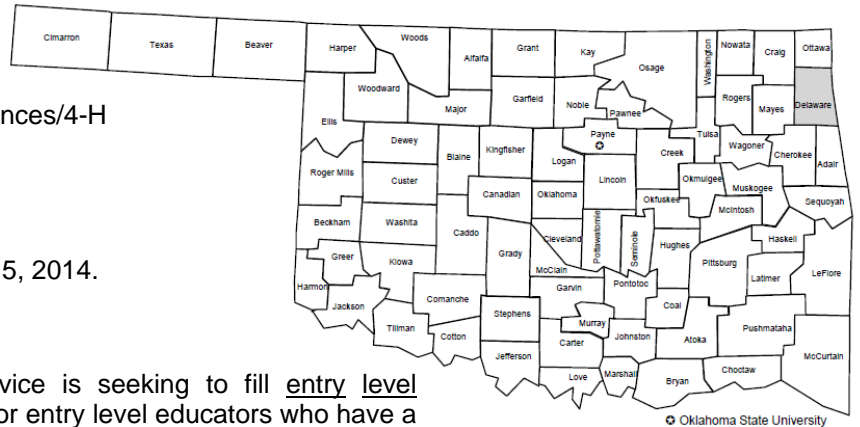

Extension Educator, Family & Consumer Sciences/4-H
Delaware County, Jay, Oklahoma

Date Available

This position is available on or after January 15, 2014.

Salary

The Oklahoma Cooperative Extension Service is seeking to fill entry level educator positions. Beginning annual salary for entry level educators who have a master's degree is $36,500 and $33,500 with a bachelor's degree. Starting salary will be based on education and relevant prior experience.

Job Summary

This position has primary program responsibility for family and consumer sciences. Shares responsibility for 4-H youth development and community resource and economic development programming.

Participates as a cohesive team member to involve local clientele and advisory groups in planning, implementing, and evaluating the total Cooperative Extension program.

Uses a variety of delivery modes to implement programs, including direct teaching, media, utilization of volunteers, exhibits, electronic information, etc.

Responsible for educational programs in family and consumer sciences requiring a broad technical knowledge of subjects such as nutrition, child and family well-being, and management. Responsibilities include educational programs which strengthen families and communities. Serve as an advisor to Oklahoma Home and Community Education (OHCE) groups.

Works collaboratively with Extension specialists, other agencies, business leaders, and organizations to: develop coalitions; network; and coordinate and conduct programs.

Provides management and leadership for the 4-H youth development program to ensure a well-rounded youth development program that includes school and community involvement.

Shares responsibility for recruiting and training 4-H volunteers, including the implementation of the Oklahoma 4-H Volunteer Application and Enrollment System.

Ensures that all youth and adults have an equal opportunity to participate in Extension programs regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran.

Work responsibilities and relative levels of programming assignment will be reviewed at least annually in conjunction with development and approval of the Annual Implementation Plan Timeline.

Continuation of this position is subject to the need for the position, performance, availability of federal and state funds, and annual participation by the county in funding OCES by meeting or exceeding established contract guidelines.

Qualifications

A master's degree in family and consumer sciences is preferred with a bachelor's degree required. Extension educators hired with only a bachelor's degree are expected to work toward completion of an approved master's degree. Extension experience is desirable.
